

I would like to nominate Diana Steel for the Sylvia Vicq tutor award.

Diana has been my tutor for a number of years. After I had a number of strokes in 2001, I lost some of my ability to read and do math. With Diana's infinite patience and encouragement I have been able to regain some of my ability, Diana doesn't give up on me and I really appreciate that.

Eric Quiring

